

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF LEGAL INVESTIGATORS, INC.

Certified Legal Investigator®
EXAMINATION APPLICATION

Elevating the Standards of the Profession

The National Association of Legal Investigators, Inc. offers the Certified Legal Investigator (CLI) program which certifies that qualified investigators possess overall superior knowledge in the field of legal investigation. The designation of Certified Legal Investigator (CLI) is registered (No. 1,332,665) with the U. S. Patent and Trademark Office and may be used only with NALI permission by those who meet the requirements and successfully pass the examinations given by the CLI Committee and its chairperson. In addition, CLI's are required to meet continuing education standards and abide by a Code of Ethics adopted by the National Association of Legal Investigators, Inc. The designation of Certified Legal Investigator is both an honor and a testimony to exceptional skill and experience in the field of legal investigation. This is the standard by which legal investigators nationwide are judged and chosen by prominent trial attorneys to conduct complex legal investigation. To accept the challenge to become a Certified Legal Investigator, completing the CLI application, and thus initiating the testing process is the start of a very special and rewarding professional experience. There are less than one hundred CLI's in the world; you can become one of proud members of this special group of legal investigators. Start the process now.

CERTIFIED LEGAL INVESTIGATOR EXAMINATION

The CLI examination is offered by the CLI Committee and its chairperson at each NALI Mid-Winter Conference in January and at each National Convention in June of each year. The examination may also be administered at regional seminars where there are a minimum of three eligible candidates to sit for the exam and/or at a time and place designated by the CLI chairperson.

The examination process includes a research (white) paper, written examination, and oral examination. Each candidate must receive a minimum passing score of 70% in each section of the examination.

APPLICATION PROCESS

All applicants who wish to participate in the examination for the Certified Legal Investigator (CLI) designation must comply with the following:

1. Answer all questions on this application legibly, truthfully and completely.
2. Submit a good quality, recent, full face (color) photograph.
3. Submit the required examination fee of $200.00 for a NALI member or $300.00 for a non-NALI member. The application and fee must be received by the CLI committee chairperson at least 30 days prior to the examination date.
4. Submit an originally authored, unpublished research /white paper consisting of a minimum of 1,000 words on any investigative subject in accordance with the established guidelines. It is not to be a rehash of an investigative case. The white paper must be received by the CLI committee chairperson at least 30 days prior to the examination date.
5. Submit to a confidential background investigation.

In completing your application, questions should be answered on separate paper and using support documentation or supplemental material as necessary. Upon completion of your application, please attach all answers and support documentation to this cover page.
